

Satellite radio in my opinion has made AM and FM radio obsolete. I encourage you to do nothing that inhibits or limits the satellite service we are now receiving. The quality is far superior a service than regular broadcast. If I need music I get tons of options. The same applies for news weather and traffic. I get more quality and less commercial interruption and I value this a great deal.

Thanks for hearing my comments.